Longevity in office, alone, speaks for reliance and dependence by the membership and confidence in the individual. All of the “Marty plaudits” are justified. I was in San Juan and participated in his interview and retention. Moreover, I wrote a letter of congratulation to Marty BEFORE he was formally notified. (The other candidate, in my view, was not really serious.) Hail to Marty!

Alden N. Haffner, OD, PhD
President Emeritus, State University of New York, State College of Optometry
Former ASCO President