AZCOPT Contributes Time, Expertise to Local HopeFest

Faculty, staff and students from the Midwestern University Arizona College of Optometry (AZCOPT) carried out vision screenings for socially and economically challenged people at HopeFest Phoenix, which was held in April at the city's Chase Field. More than 300 people received screenings, and 212 attendees received Vision Service Plan gift certificates for comprehensive eye exams and optical materials.

Members of the AZCOPT community who participated in HopeFest Phoenix.