

Seventy years ago, Gavin S. Herbert, Sr, and his son, Gavin Herbert, Jr, created Allergan with the goal of improving the lives of patients. Since that time, Allergan has remained dedicated to advancing eye care, launching 125 products for prevalent eye conditions. We are committed to helping ECPs deliver superior patient care through R&D, philanthropy, outreach programs, and support of academic institutions.