

Via e-mail vote in early December, the ASCO Board of Directors approved a motion to elect Dr. David S. Loshin, Dean of Nova Southeastern University College of Optometry, as ASCO Interim President-Elect for the period of Jan. 1, 2014 to June 30, 2014. Dr. Loshin will replace the current President-Elect, Dr. Linda Casser.

Dr. Loshin is a two-term former ASCO president (2001-2003). As is customary, ASCO's Nominating and Awards Committee will nominate a new slate of officers in June.
