

AZCOPT Associate Dean Recognized by Phoenix Business Journal

by Kim O'Sullivan - Monday, August 13, 2018

/4712

Kaila Osmotherly, OD, FAAO, Associate Dean of the Arizona College of Optometry, has been selected as a member of the Phoenix Business Journal's annual "Forty-Under-40" class.

The "Forty-Under-40" list annually recognizes up-and-coming leaders in business and the community. This year, the Phoenix Business Journal selected its Class of 2018 from a pool of more than 400 candidates from the Valley of the Sun.

The winners were honored at an awards ceremony on Aug. 2, and highlighted in a special edition of the Phoenix Business Journal on Aug. 3.